Sou. Kankavati Balkrishna Bansode & Ors. ..Respondents.

G.P.Mulekar, APP for respondent No.3.

CORAM: S.B.MHASE &
S.R.SATHE JJ
DATE: AUGUST 8, 2005.

P.C.

1. This matter was for final hearing on 4.7.2005, no one was present on that date. Therefore, it was adjourned to 25.7.2005. No one was present on that date also. Today the matter is on board for final hearing, however, no one is present. The order under challenge is dated 21.8.2001 whereby the revision petitioner is directed to pay the maintenance to the respondent No.2 who is son of the revision petitioner. The quantum fixed is Rs.500/- per month from the date of application, i.e. 9.4.1998 till the respondent No.2 attends the age of majority. We have perused the judgment and we do not find any error, perversity and/or illegality committed by the Court below. The Revision Petition is hereby dismissed on merit.
